

Adventure Challenge

Your Adventure Challenge this weekend is to go on a Spring Hunt. You can do this as part of your daily exercise if it is safe for you to do so or even in your own garden.

I would like you to take some photographs and make a montage of the things you can find and send them to your teacher on Class Dojo or directly to Miss Beldham by e-mail: lbeldham@nottinghamacademy.org if you are happy for them to be put on the schools twitter page.

Below you can see the list of things you are challenged to find and if you scroll across you can see the photo montage of what I found on my Spring Hunt!

Have fun hunting,
- Miss Beldham
