

NOTTINGHAM ACADEMY

WINTER POETRY COMPETITION

Inspired by the wintry world from the novel The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, you are invited to write a poem based on winter.

What magical winter wonderland is hiding through the wardrobe?

Your poem could be about:

- A winter wonderland
 - An Ice Palace
 - A wintry forest
 - An ice rink
 - Christmas
 - Children playing in the snow
 - Winter traditions
 - Snow flakes
 - The weather in winter
 - Clothes you wear to keep warm
- Use the vocabulary mat on the back of this sheet to help you with ideas.

Please be as creative as you can with how you present your writing.

Please write your full name and class on your entry and hand it in to your teacher by Friday 15th December

Winners will be announced in the last week of term

Through the wardrobe into your winter wonderland

snow
snowflake
sleet
slush
hail
ice
snowfall
snowstorm
blizzard
flurry

freezing
frozen
frosty
ice-cold
polar
glacial
wintry
bitter
cool

snowy
silver
silvery
grey
greying

shiny
gleaming
sparkly
glittery
polished
shimmering
glistening
reflective

crystal
gem
precious

stars
illuminating
radiating
moon
flicker
brilliant
intense
dazzling
vivid
clear
reflective

dark
dim
shady
gloomy
bleak
dreary
dismal

hats
gloves
scarves
scarf
mittens
ear muffs
snoods
coats
jackets
boots
thermals

hot chocolate
fairy lights
lamps
burning
blazing
flaming
shining
smouldering

leaves
trees
branches
bridges
ponds
streams
castles
turrets
drawbridge
gate
fence
lamppost
post box
shops
markets
Christmas
candles
carols
singing